I rather enjoyed this game. It's basically Professor Layton or Puzzle Agent, but with a cute story. You'll get about 2.5 to 3 hours out of this first episode. It's also on Android and iOS and I could actually see it working a bit better as a tablet game. Looks great on PC though and it gives you that Costume Quest childish feel.. If you're a fan of the Professor Layton games on the DS, then give this charming title a look. Although it borrows (read: steals) a few of the mechanics from that series-- such as the merit points awarded and finding soda cans instead of hint coins (which fulfill the same purpose)-- this is by no means a bad thing. The world is also beautiful to look at and explore, filled with some very amusing characters with genuinely funny dialogue. Despite the game's shortness-- with just 24 puzzles and the story included-- it is good value for what you get, with more promised by the developer to come soon. Despite being somewhat inferior to the Layton series, this is still worth your time if you're craving some lighthearted puzzle action.

PROS:

- +Stylish graphics make the game look great
- +Charming characters with funny dialogue to boot
- +Puzzles are more challenging than the art style suggests
- +Cheap

CONS

- Suspiciously similar mechanics to the Layton series
- Some difficulty in clicking on soda cans when Jacob blocks view of them
- Short in length
- Writing memos can be somewhat tricky with a mouse

Overall score: 7/10, would recommend. Fun and varied puzzle sampler. Somewhat clunky controls on the PC but not too bad.. Puzzles and nice art style. What more do you need?. To anyone who said this game was shorter. I don't think so anyway!. The game price are fairly valuable.

As well, is a wild version of Professor Layton Mystery Solving puzzle game (Yup!, many people said that about this game). Includes fiendish puzzles (but some puzzles are piece of cake!), great "papercraft-look" landscapes, great stories, and funny characters (well, especially I like Flommerly's voice and it makes me laugh especially his lost face and win face reaction LOL!).

You'd better get this game alongside it's second episode "RoadtRIP!", but getting Jacob Jones bundle is more cheaper than you buy all of them in one price each. Also, the game looks was completely great and better on PC and iPad than from android tablets. I was thinking why not this little game to be Steam exclusives alongside with "Costume Quest" series for kids?.

Hoping the third episode will come out because there is something that what is predicted from episode 1 and 2?.. This is what the Professor Layton games would be like, had they been made by Double Fine. They overuse DoF and the interface is a bit too much like a mobile game, but that doesn't stop it from being a very charming, entertaining game.. A very good puzzle game with interesting puzzles ranging from easy to challenging difficulty. It's aesthetically pleasing, really colorful and cute. The controls are a little annoying at the beginning but you get used to them after awhile. I highly recommend it to whomever wants a simple brain teaser.

Great game, very layton-esque as many people say. There needs to be more games like this, I hope the next game they make has a more adult theme though.. I'm waiting desperately for episode 3. This game and episode 2 fits that need for a Professor Layton style story/puzzle game, and I love it. However, the camera angles don't really allow you to collect everything, so if you are a completionist, you might be disappointed.. Great puzzle game for kids or even adults. some of the puzzles are simple and others just make you wanna rage quite for a bit but they're all great fun. the game follows Jacob and his friend bigfoot who disguise himself as a dog so no one knows who he really is. The game is done up with a pretty cute art style to.. Pros:

Satisfying puzzles.

Wonderful humour and characters.

Cute graphics and sounds.

Bigfoot!

Cons:

Lack of configuration options.

Annoying swaying screen effect and blurred edges.

Individually, each episode is a little brief.. Short but funny.. A beautiful game with some moderate brain teasers and a cute summer camp story. A great way to kill a few hours.. Very charming game. It has the "Double Fine" vibe where everything is cute but you can still very much enjoy it as an adult.

Gameplay is very similar to Professor Layton.

The first episode took me about 2 hours to complete. It ends at a good point, no weird cutoff points like some other episodic content has.

I sometimes had some troubles with the puzzles because they were made for touch controls. It's easy to get used to though.

Note that I had some performance issues but I have been able to fix it by messing with the settings of "JacobJonesSystemSettings.ini" at "My Games\UnrealEngine3\JacobJonesGame\Config". a sweet and atmospheric puzzle game. played it on mobile before and found the pc version even better in terms of graphics on the big screen. controls are a bit clunky at times so getting all achievements might be tough.... but you can play the whole game without issues. i really love the atmosphere and subtle humour of the series so i recommend it even tho the developers sadly apparently abandoned it after episode 2 :(but playing it till then is very enjoyable so if you like the genre and the cute graphics, go ahead! btw buying eps 1 and 2 as a bundle is cheaper.
